Are you looking to make a difference?

Join CARIE to discover how you can get involved in your community and improve the well-being of older adults. Learn about CARIE’s programs and services and opportunities for you to volunteer in programs such as the Philadelphia Long Term Care Ombudsman program, health care fraud prevention, victims’ advocacy, and more. CARIE welcomes volunteers of all ages and as a volunteer you can discover new skills, make friends, and most importantly, share your experience and willingness to help those who need it most! You will also have an opportunity to meet and greet current staff and other volunteers at CARIE and hear more about how you can be an advocate.

RSVP to Jessica Hartfield by Friday, June 21 at 215-545-5728 or hartfield@carie.org

"I volunteer because I like to be an example for my children. There's always something you can do."
- William Magwood, Volunteer Ombudsman
